To Whom It May Concern,

When disaster struck us with a horrible house fire, we were lost. Even as an attorney, dealing with the insurance company and its games proved daunting. Then we found Brandon Lewis and his team at Strategic Claim Consultants. They knew exactly what to do and how to go toe-to-toe with the insurance adjusters, who tried to take advantage at every turn. Brandon is unrelenting and never pushed us to give in -- in fact, quite the opposite. We highly recommend Strategic Claim Consultants to anyone dealing with an insurance claim -- they should be your first call!
